Happy Retirement Mrs Jackson and Mrs Marsh

Mrs Jackson and Mrs Marsh will be retiring at the end of the year. Both staff members have worked at Emmaus for many years and served our community with commitment and care. Mrs Jackson has been a teacher at Emmaus for 18 years and we will miss her deep knowledge of English and her enthusiasm for singing and art. Mrs Marsh has been a teaching assistant at Emmaus and St Oswald's before it for the 26 years. We will miss her commitment to beautiful displays and the care and kindness she supported children in their learning.

Both Mrs Jackson and Mrs Marsh have been cornerstones of our school for many years and they will be missed. We know they both have lots of exciting things lined up for their retirement and many adventures ahead of them- we wish them all the best!

It is run by experienced nurses and healthcare support workers and they can help you to ensure your child's vaccinations are up-to-date and they are fully protected against serious diseases, such as polio and measles.

Please visit this website for more details: https://www.sheffieldchildrens.nhs.uk/services/school-nursing/school-age-immunisation-service/
